Living Interdependence

With 'My Climate Plan' Co-founder and Ministerial Candidate Reilly Yeo

“Shared pain is lessened; shared joy increased. Thus do we refute entropy.” ~ Spider Robinson.

What would it mean to live in a culture where we truly focused on sharing each others' pains and joys? As social isolation continues to rise, we come together as UUs to imagine and to try to practice that culture. With our commitments to interdependence and to encouraging each others' spiritual growth, we remain a countercultural faith. Join Reilly to explore the unique gifts we have to offer a world in crisis.

Please come early for the Pre-Service Sing-Along with Kate and Bill at 10:10 am. (In person and Online)

Stay after the service for our monthly Envirobee with Teresa Morton. (In person and Online)
